

From the Heart

A letter from Pastor John

Colossians 3:16 <sup>16</sup> Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God.

Dear Friends,

In Ellen Vaughn's Radical Gratitude, she asks the question, "Is gratitude a discipline?" In other words, is it something we must practice regularly to develop a perpetual mindset of thankfulness? Can we force our hearts to be grateful? Should we have a gratitude list and check it off as we fulfill it? Is gratitude yet another discipline to be mastered?

Ellen Vaughn claims that gratitude is not a discipline. She argues that grace is a gift of God and gratitude is what grace creates. Gratitude is our response to the work of God in our lives. Ellen Vaughn claims that although gratitude is not a discipline but rather a gift of God, there are some things we can do to enable us to receive gratitude.

First, we remember—remember the saving grace God has offered us, salvation in Jesus Christ, We are also to remember the acts of grace God offers in each day—a kind word from a friend, finding something lost, feeling sunshine on our face.

Secondly, we forget—our sins, our shame, and our successes. We confess our sins and God is faithful to forgive us. We recognize we are cleansed and made righteous by the righteousness of Christ. Sin is what we do or don't do. Shame is about who we are. We count ourselves to be children of God. We also forget our successes, because we know grace was involved. All that we are, is a gift of God; there is no room for arrogance only humility.

Thirdly, we look up to God—God is like no other, deserving of endless praise.

Fourthly, we look around to God's people. Gratitude comes when we connect to God's people in community. Too many people are ungrateful, because they choose to live in isolation.

So may you remember, forget, look up, and look around!

With thanksgiving for all the saints,

Pastor John

CHURCH-WIDE UPDATES

Special Session of the West Ohio Annual Conference

October 28, 2023

Dave Thomas and Pastor John Whitaker attended the special session of the West Ohio Annual Conference at Ginghamburg UMC. Bishop Gregory V. Palmer presided over the conference with nearly 800 clergy and lay members in attendance. Business included approving 96 churches for disaffiliation. This brings the total to 348 churches that have disaffiliated. This is the last round of disaffiliations in the West Ohio Annual Conference. The 2024 Conference budget was approved with the same amount as apportioned in 2023 for our remaining churches. The Conference approved the sale of Camp Widewater and Camp Otterbein. West Ohio camping has been operating at a deficit for years. The sale of these properties will be used to update the last remaining camp, Camp Wesley. For several reasons, the Conference needed to elect additional delegates to complete the slate for the upcoming 2024 General and Jurisdictional Conferences. This was accomplished.

Bishop Palmer offered this prayer to the members of the conference and encourages all West Ohio United Methodists to pray this prayer through the coming months.

“Gracious God, we humbly acknowledge that you are the source of our life. We confess we are often tempted to try being your church without your love, without your power. Forgive us. Grant to us, grace-full God to put all our hope and confidence in you. For you are Able. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.”

The 2024 West Ohio Conference will be held May 29 – June 1, 2024, at Capital University in Bexley, Ohio with the theme “God is Able” based on Ephesians 3:20-21.

All Saints Sunday

November 5

This meaningful service is not to be missed. Candles are lit at the 9:30am and 11am worship services for loved ones who have died in the past year and are connected in ministry to Shiloh.

Emergency Assistance Funds are Low

One of the things that happens outside of our budget is the Emergency Assistance Fund. These funds are used to help families with rent, utilities, food, gasoline, and medications. This is a comfort ministry designed to encourage people who are in difficult situations. The fund is nearly depleted, and we have had to turn down numerous requests. If this is a ministry you would like to support, please write a check to Shiloh UMC and mark Emergency Assistance Fund on the memo.

Stewardship Packets Mailed

If you do not receive a Shiloh Stewardship packet in the coming week please call the church office. Stewardship Sunday is November 12. Estimate of Giving cards for 2024 will be dedicated on that day. The ministry of Living in Testimony will also be present on that day.

Shiloh Church Conference

November 14, 2023; 7:30pm

Our annual church meeting which approves numerous annual reports will be held in Asbury Hall at 7:30pm on November 14. All church members will have vote. Everyone is welcome. Rev. Bryan Bucher from Westwood UMC will preside.

The Eagle Court of Honor

November 12, Shiloh Sanctuary, 2:00pm

Six Scouts will be received into the Eagle Court of Honor on November 12. This is an amazing tribute to the ministry of scouting at Shiloh UMC. Those to be included are Tommy Bradley, Carter Ruhe, Grant Ruhe, Joe Helmes, Aiden Smith, and Austin Veneman. Tommy, Carter and Grant are all cousins!

Looking Ahead on December 24

On that day we will have four

NOTES FROM NATHAN

Happy November everyone. I wanted to write this to reflect on everything that we did with the youth in October. Normally I would show you in a week by week format with pictures, but this month was so eventful we barely had time to take photos.

Our first week of the month we wanted to provide an opportunity for the students to invite new friends to a more casual night, so we hosted a night of board games. The laughter was joyous as we had students trying to talk like cavemen and getting hit with the "bonk stick" whenever they failed.

On October 8th I taught a lesson on differences in how different Christians see parts of the faith, but we are still one in Christ with them. Describing how other denominations take communion or celebrate baptism is always a good time. This led to another night later in the month.

The following week we really kicked off the fall season, we roasted marshmallows and had s'mores and hot dogs. We really grew closer together and even showed a few youth how to build a fire, which is always a valuable skill.

On the 22nd I wanted to let the youth have an opportunity to follow up on the last lesson and let them come with their questions about Christianity, the Bible, and faith. I answered quite a few questions and continued to emphasize the message of Jesus at the center of everything we do.

Finally on the 29th, we had around 10 of our youth come and help with Trunk or Treat. Our kids love our community and want to serve in other ministries of the church.

I am looking forward to November and our Fall Retreat, please be in prayer for our students as we spend time learning how to be a better community.
