

From the Heart

A letter from Pastor John

“Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin;
yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.”

Matthew 6:28

Dear friends,

Springtime is upon us. Flowers are blooming, trees are budding, and the landscape speaks of generosity and beauty. I like the changing of the seasons. Easter has been celebrated. Death and fear are not the last word. Life and hope are spoken into our souls by the Spirit of the resurrected Christ.

As Jesus spoke the words above, I believe they reflected his eye for beauty and appreciation of creation. Jesus said, “The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light.” Life is about perspective. Jesus saw that people were worried about money, security, and necessities like clothing. Jesus challenged the people to seek first what God wants and then assured them that all they were worried about would find its proper place.

Jesus lived out of Oneness with God. Jesus said you cannot serve God and wealth. Jesus said, “Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.” In other words, as our perspective matches the mind of Christ, we ask for what God wants.

I have been praying, “Lord, what do you want to do through me to fulfill your will for Shiloh?” This prayer has helped my perspective. I have plenty to worry about—buying and selling homes, moving, taxes, uncertainty, impending retirement, fatigue, sleep, how to fix things, relationships, maintenance of vehicles, and what to prioritize. God has used this prayer to turn me from centering my life on all I have to do to what God wants to do through me for the benefit of God’s people. God has used the prayer to point me toward worship and appreciation.

One of the benefits of the Capital Campaign has been listening to the stories of how people came to Shiloh and why they have remained. People remain at Shiloh because they have felt the presence of God. God has called us to give and forgive. God has called us to trust and serve. God has called us to worship. We refuse to be bitter. God has called us to comfort others. We refuse to judge. God has called us to behold the beauty of people.

God has called us to be One.

Blessings,

Pastor John

Capital Campaign Information Gatherings Well Attended

Many people attended our Information Meetings in March. Everyone agreed, one of the best parts of the gatherings was being with other Shiloh people and sharing about our lives. People spoke about how long they had been at Shiloh, how they came to be at Shiloh, and why they have remained at Shiloh. There were stories of God's presence, the gift of being in God's family, numerous graces, and examples of support during difficult times.

Thanks to all the hosts and facilitators who made these events a truly spiritual process: Nancy Gallat, Sissy Galbraith, Meier Bauer, Ronda Kroeger, Darlene Litteral, Krista Andriacco, Molly Hunter, Jennifer and Scott Brown, Jeannie and Tim Schoonover, Lisa Bedinghaus, Mark Noble, Paula Hunterman, and Katie Plumlee. Mike and Sue Walpole, Darlene and Steve Radcliffe, and Victoria Bloechl were also willing and prepared servants but were not needed to lead. There were numerous people who made calls from the Caring Contact Team chaired by Mark Noble and Valerie Bender. Thanks to all!

Celebrating Spiritual Milestones: A Wonderful Conclusion to Our Confirmation Class

With hearts full of joy and gratitude, we celebrate a significant milestone in the journey of faith for our congregation. The culmination of our recent confirmation class has been nothing short of remarkable, marked by profound moments of spiritual commitment and growth. We rejoice in the celebration of six baptisms and three professions of faith, each a testament to the transformative power of God's love and grace within our midst.

Throughout the duration of the confirmation class, Pastor John and I walked alongside these students, nurturing their faith, guiding their exploration, and fostering an environment of deep reflection and inquiry. Together, we have embarked on a journey of discovery, delving into the rich tapestry of our faith tradition, grappling with profound questions, and seeking to understand the profound mysteries of God's presence in our lives.

As we reflect on the significance of this moment, we are reminded of the sacred covenant that binds us together as a community of believers. Through baptism, we are initiated into the family of God, marked as beloved children and heirs to the promise of salvation. In professing our faith, we affirm our commitment to follow in the footsteps of Christ, embracing the call to love God and neighbor with all our heart, soul, and mind.

Each baptism and profession of faith represents a unique journey, a personal encounter with the divine that has unfolded in its own time and in its own way. And yet, in the waters of baptism and the vows of profession, we are united as one body, bound together by a shared commitment to walk the path of discipleship together.

As we look to the future, let us continue to uphold these newly baptized and professed members of our community in prayer and support. May we be a source of encouragement and inspiration to them as they navigate the challenges and joys of the Christian life. And may their journey serve as a beacon of hope and renewal for us all, reminding us of the transformative power of God's love to renew, restore, and reconcile all things.

In conclusion, let us give thanks for the blessings bestowed upon us in this sacred moment. Let us rejoice in the new life that has been born within our midst and rededicate ourselves to the work of nurturing and sustaining the faith of all who seek to walk this journey with us. For truly, in the bonds of love and fellowship, we find the strength to face whatever lies ahead, confident in the promise that God's grace will always be sufficient for us.

Yours in Christ,

Nathan Cheney, Director of Student Ministries

NOTES FROM NATHAN

Greetings, Youth Community!

As we bid farewell to March and step into the dawn of a new month, let's take a moment to pause and reflect on the incredible journey we've shared together through the pages of Scripture. Over the past month, our Youth Ministry has delved deep into the heart of the Bible, exploring its rich tapestry of stories, themes, and truths that continue to shape our lives and deepen our faith.

Tracing the Thread: A Journey through Scripture

Throughout March, we embarked on an exhilarating adventure through the Bible, tracing the thread of God's redemptive story from Genesis to Revelation. From the dawn of creation to the promise of a new heaven and a new earth, we explored the grand narrative that forms the foundation of our faith. Through engaging discussions, interactive activities, and moments of profound reflection, we gained a deeper understanding of the remarkable journey of God's people throughout history and the enduring relevance of Scripture in our lives today.

Discovering Truth: Unveiling the Heart of Scripture

In our exploration of the Bible, we encountered a wealth of timeless truths and foundational principles that continue to guide and shape our understanding of God and His purposes for humanity. From the character of God to the nature of sin, from the call to justice to the promise of hope, we delved into the heart of Scripture, seeking to discern its relevance to our lives and its implications for our journey of faith. Through thoughtful reflection and meaningful dialogue, we grappled with the complexities of Scripture, striving to glean wisdom and insight from its pages as we sought to live out our faith in an ever-changing world.

Embracing Transformation: Living Out God's Word

But our journey through the Bible was not merely an intellectual exercise—it was a call to transformation, a challenge to embody the truths we encountered in Scripture in our daily lives. Throughout March, we sought to put our faith into action, embracing opportunities for service, outreach, and discipleship that allowed us to live out the love, grace, and truth of Christ in tangible ways. From acts of kindness to moments of vulnerability, we witnessed the transformative power of God's Word at work in our midst, shaping us into the people He has called us to be and inspiring us to continue our journey of faith with courage and conviction.

Looking Ahead: A Future Filled with Promise

As we look ahead to the month to come, let us carry with us the lessons we have learned, the truths we have discovered, and the experiences we have shared. May the journey we have undertaken together serve as a source of inspiration and encouragement as we continue to walk the path of discipleship, guided by the light of God's Word and fueled by the power of His Spirit. And may we remain ever mindful of the incredible privilege we have been given to journey together in community, supporting one another, challenging one another, and growing together in grace and truth.

Blessings,
Nathan

WOMEN ARE GOLD

Happy Easter.

As always, we have lots of exciting news we want to share with you from March.

In our last update, we mentioned that we had sent a group of women to Mercy Medical Center, in Phnom Penh, to receive free medical checks. This month, Rick and our staff member, Dany, met with Mercy Medical Center executive director to sign a Memorandum of Understanding for future partnership and collaboration. This is a very valuable partnership for both our clients and for the Kampong Cham community, one that will allow for free or reduced cost, quality medical services. We look forward to working with Mercy Medical Center in the near future.

Please help us in congratulating our team of runners, who trained for months, in extreme heat and at times, in the dark, to complete their first ever 10k race on International Women’s Day. Their hard work and dedication sure paid off! We are so proud of their dedication, determination and commitment to themselves and to women’s empowerment. Congratulations to all! You rock!

Women Are Gold took our Financial Management training on the road again! This month we went to New Life Church, Soung City, to teach their leadership and congregation about our financial management strategies. Many of all ages were in attendance and the class was very perceived and helpful. We look forward to hearing some feedback in the future about families rising from poverty to financial stability by using our methods. We have confidence that these families can make a positive change.

Rick is still very busy in Cambodia, assisting the staff with new client registration, preparing for the launch of our new projects, meeting with potential partners and supporting our team in their daily activities.

On Palm Sunday, Rick was invited to deliver the morning message to approximately sixty young people at Strong Nation Church in Kampong Cham. He delivered the message in English, and it was translated into Khmer by a gracious translator. Thank you, Strong Nation for your hospitality.

We are so grateful for partnerships we have built, for the training programs we can provide to those in our community, and for the opportunity to pour into the lives of countless young people on a weekly basis.

We continue to pray that, if these young people don't see or feel the love of Jesus anywhere else, let them see and feel the love of Jesus in Women Are Gold.

SCOUTS

Big THANK YOU to Sue Squeri as she led our Webelo's 2 Cub Scouts in their Arrow of Light Adventures Requirement "Duty to God in Action." Miss Sue discussed with the Scouts what it means to do your duty to God, how they can carry it out daily, and how this relates to the Scout Oath and the Scout Law. They finished by learning the T.A.C.O.S.S. prayer, which gave them a simple way to remember what they could say when praying. We hope to see these scouts next year in our own Troop 350.

Thank You
