

From the Heart

A letter from Pastor John

Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding.
Proverbs 3:5

Dear Friends,

As I ponder the above verse, I wonder if I have ever come close to carrying it out. Lean not on my own understanding? Another version says, "...do not rely on your own insight" and another says, "...do not rely on your own intelligence." Since when I have ever jettisoned my own desire to understand a situation? I want to trust the Lord with all my heart. I want to love the Lord with all my heart, mind, soul, and strength, but I find it difficult to give up my own ability to make sense out of the senseless. I see intuition as a gift of God.

Evidently, wisdom is the ability to accept that there are limits to logic. The writer goes on to say, "Do not be wise in your own eyes, fear the Lord and turn from evil." If we are wise in our own eyes, we will forget to pray. God will become a last resort. Faith is difficult. We want to trust. Good living is about trust, but our self-reliant, independent, individualistic culture often works against it. Our culture says, "It is all up to you." Our Scripture declares that God is present and available. God can lead us into what God is doing.

Shiloh is going through a season of trust. Transitions are ahead. The dilemma of fixing things or waiting for a more prudent time is always with us. Careful analysis caused Shiloh to determine that now is the time to renovate the sanctuary. The size of the project required a capital campaign. And every church that enters a capital campaign will be challenged in the trust department. I am grateful Shiloh has built the capital campaign on prayer. "Lord, what do you want to do through me to fulfill your will for Shiloh?" With such a prayer our faith has grown. And consider this, with the sanctuary renovation nearly complete, many of our fears are now in the past.

My impending retirement feels like a test of faith. There are so many decisions to make and I agonize over decisions. There are many details in the retirement journey. I get exhausted by minutia. For example, I was having trouble signing up for social security benefits online. When I went to the Social Security office, I discovered that two different birthdays were listed for me. How did that happen? Fortunately, my birth certificate cleared up the confusion. Why can't things be simple? We purchased a home near our grandchildren. This week, Mary Lynn called a company to determine what kind of animal has been heard in the attic. Really? Despite all the tests, I must trust that when retirement arrives I will be ready. And certainly, God is with us all and I am grateful for God's patience.

Blessings,

Pastor John

CHURCH-WIDE UPDATES

Our First Worship Service in the Renovated Sanctuary! Commitment Sunday May 5, 10:30am

Shiloh is thrilled to return to the Sanctuary for a combined worship service on May 5 at 10:30am. There will be a meal following in the gymnasium. No reservations are required. This is our Commitment Sunday. Pledges will be received for our capital campaign to renovate the sanctuary. There will also be a dedication of the sanctuary. If there are prayer requests for May 5, please email them to either office@shilohumc.com or jwhitaker@shilohoumc.com and the staff will pray over them during the week.

The pews are already in and they are beautiful. The storm windows are installed. The windowsills and stained-glass are next. Musical instruments must be moved back into place. Cleaning needs to be accomplished. We hope all the stained-glass will be in, but if not, we will still be able to proceed with worship and the dedication.

Our capital campaign goal is $385,000. Remember all commitments matter. The capital campaign pledge is for three years and is giving beyond our regular support of the annual budget. If you need more information about the campaign, please call the church office. A special thanks to everyone who has helped make the Shiloh Capital Campaign a positive experience. We have prayed, "Lord, what do You want to do through me to fulfill your will for Shiloh?" Many are appreciative that our capital campaign has been founded on prayer.

West Ohio Annual Conference, May 29-June 1, 2024

The 55th session of the West Ohio Annual Conference is set to convene from Wednesday, May 29 through June 1, 2024, at Capital University in Bexley, Ohio. This year's theme, "God is Able," draws inspiration from Ephesians 3:20-21, promising a gathering that celebrates the limitless power of God.

A significant aspect of the conference includes voting on crucial business matters that will shape the future of the West Ohio Conference.

There will be a time of celebration as it marks the retirement of Bishop Gregory and Mrs. Cynthia Palmer. Pastor John will also be attending a retirement service on Saturday, at 10:30am. Bev Hansen is our lay delegate to Annual Conference.

The conference will also shine a spotlight on the ordination of clergy, symbolizing a commitment to nurturing new leaders and fostering spiritual growth within The United Methodist Church.

There will be an offering received for scholarships for Africa University. Tuition for one year at Africa University is $6500.

2024 General Conference, April 23-May 3, 2024

The United Methodist Church General Conference is set to begin on April 23 in Charlotte, NC. This conference takes place every four years and is the only entity that speaks for the denomination. The United Methodist Book of Discipline is updated every four years to incorporate changes made by the General Conference.

The voting delegates for this conference will come from various parts of the world, including the United States (55.9%), Africa (32%), the Philippines (6%), Europe (4.6%), and concordat churches that have close ties to The United Methodist Church (1.5%). Half of the delegates will be clergy and the other half will be laity.

In the days ahead, many will have opinions about what happens at the General Conference. Please see these reliable sources for the most accurate information:

We used our small group time to share with the kids that Shiloh wants to pray for them. They loved it!

NOTES FROM NATHAN

Hello Brothers and Sisters, As the spring blooms in its full glory, it brings with it a season of transition, particularly for our beloved students. Graduation marks the culmination of years of hard work, dedication, and growth. It's a time of reflection, celebration, and anticipation for the journey ahead. In the midst of these transitions, it's important for us to pause and reflect on the significance of this moment, not just academically or socially, but also spiritually. As Christians, we view graduation not only as a milestone in one's educational journey but also as a testament to God's faithfulness and provision throughout the years. Scripture reminds us in Jeremiah 29:11, "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." As our students embark on this new chapter of their lives, let us trust in God's perfect plan for each of them. Though the path ahead may be uncertain, we take comfort in knowing that God is always with us, guiding our steps and leading us toward His purpose. Graduation season also offers us an opportunity to reflect on the lessons learned and the friendships forged during our time together. It's a time to express gratitude for the mentors who have walked alongside us, the challenges that have strengthened us, and the victories that have shaped us. As we bid farewell to our graduating seniors, let us do so with hearts full of love and blessings. May they carry with them the values of faith, integrity, and compassion as they venture into the world beyond our ministry walls. And may they always remember that they are never alone, for God's presence goes with them wherever they may go. To our graduating seniors, as you stand on the threshold of this new beginning, know that you are cherished and celebrated by your church family. We believe in you, we pray for you, and we eagerly anticipate witnessing the incredible journey that lies ahead for each of you. In closing, let us lift our voices in prayer, thanking God for the gift of our graduating seniors and asking for His guidance and protection as they step into the next stage of their lives. Blessings and grace,

WHAT'S NEW

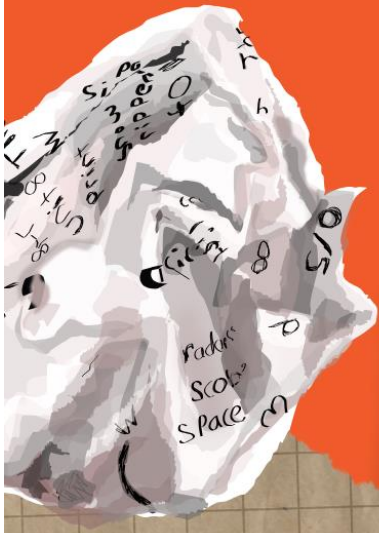

Women's Program Bible Study

Over at the Women's home we are engaged in a thrilling bible study on the Armor of God! We've got a solid group of Christian women who are attending weekly and pouring into our residents. We are grateful to see our residents build friendships and embrace their authority Jesus!

Jail Outreach

We have been given the opportunity to enter into the new Women's Care Pod at the Hamilton County Justice Center. Focusing on rehabilitation and re-entry, we are able to go in once a week and speak to women currently incarcerated about our program at LIT. This allows us to give them information and spark interest in becoming a resident or simply offering resources for when they are released.

PRAYER BREAKFAST

Thank you to all who joined us at our 2nd Annual LIT Prayer Breakfast on March 2nd! The event was a resounding success, highlighted by an impactful testimony from Anthony Munoz.

The contributions made by individuals like yourselves, who share a belief in the transformative work of God, are indispensable to the mission of LIT. Your support enables us to positively impact the lives of those we serve. Thank you!

WOMEN ARE GOLD

Happy Spring!

April is always a slow month and a very fascinating for Rick and I, as Christians, at Women Are Gold. It's a slow month because in Cambodia, this is the time when the people celebrate Khmer New Year, the greatest traditional festival, and also the greatest national holiday. It is three or four days of festival depending on the lunar calendar. Khmer New Year begins on April 13th or can begin on April 14th and is celebrated for three consecutive days.

The second day of New Year is called Wanabot, which means day of offering gifts to the parents, grandparents and elders. In the evening, people go to temple to build a mountain of sand and ask the monks to give them a blessing of happiness and peace.

The third day is called day of "Leung Sakk;" that means the year starts to be counted up from this day, for example it is when the year of 2023 would change and begin to be 2024. Traditionally, in the morning, people would go to the temple to perform the ceremony of the mountain of sand to get blessed. In the evening, to complete the New Year festival, Khmer people need to perform the last ceremony, called "Pithi Srang Preah", which means giving a special bath or a special shower to Buddha statues, the monks, elders, parents and grandparents in order to apologize for any mistake done to them and to gratify them.

Our clients younger siblings giving a bath to their mother and grandmother during Khmer New Year.

Everyone has a wonderful time during this ceremony because it is a great opportunity for everyone, young and old, man and woman, to have much fun by spreading out water to each other.

During this time, as Christians, Rick and I witness the worshipping and celebrating of false gods, something that Theravada Buddhism is centered around and what most people in Cambodia practice. But, we also witness the love, loyalty, honor and respect that is given to family during this time, something that is absolutely beautiful and something that we know can only come from God.

One of our clients giving a bath to her mother and grandmother on the third day of Khmer New Year.

We are always fascinated by this time of year in Cambodia, but we are also so thankful that we have One True God, who is always close, can take care of our every need, and doesn't expect offerings, showers or blessings. Jesus is the Way!
